Despite the Depression,
Republicans Retain Control.

Rays of Hope Follow
Year of Business Distress.

Everything is relative. While business conditions in this country are still far from what they were two years ago, the end of 1908 presents an encouraging outlook in comparison to that which capital and labor faced last January. Then 338,000 freight cars were idle, thousands of mills and factories were closed, at least 2,000,000 wage earners were unemployed, other millions worked on part time or at reduced wages, goods on hand could not be sold at a profit, railroad and industrial stocks were battered in price at most beyond recognition, and at high rates of interest little money could be obtained from lending. Fear possessed the business community on the eve of a presidential campaign in which both the old parties were considering radical measures for securing off the bog of socialism. Processions of the unemployed marched in the larger cities and gave a picture of a case of nerves.

A large number of strikes resulted from wage reductions, but few were successful. The railroads were between the devil of reduced traffic and the deep sea of a threatened general strike. Their only apparent relief, if they hoped to pay salaries and dividends, was to raise freight rates. Here they met the opposition of the shippers backed by the preliminary investigation of the interstate commerce commission. The Southwestern association did advance rates in July, and some southern lines reduced wages, while nearly all lines laid off men. In December came the general announcement of a 10 per cent increase to take effect Jan. 1, 1909.

E. H. Harriman in March took full possession of the Georgia Central, which with a new connecting link gave him a cross continent system. On April 28 Cleveland's three cent fare municipal street railway system went into effect, but hardly was it started when a bitter strike was called to enforce a former contract for wage increase. Riots and car dynamiting followed the lines for weeks, but the city finally won. A deficit the first two months gave way later to a surplus, but the public, dissatisfied with the service, voted in the Oct. 2 referendum against the municipal franchise, and a few weeks later the company was thrown into receivership. Secretary Wilson reported the value of all crops to the farmer to be $7,722,000,000, a new record, corn heading the list with 2,643,000,000 bushels.

Jan. 9 New York celebrated the completion and operation of its first East river tunnel and of its first Hudson river tunnel from Hoboken Feb. 25. Philadelphia's $20,000,000 Market street subway was opened July 30. The ocean speed record was lowered repeatedly by the big British turbines, the Lusitania, finally doing the best western trip in 4 days 15 minutes.

Regulation of Trusts and Pursuit of Grafters.

The American smile of 1907 when Judge Landis fined the oil trust $20,240,000 for taking Alton rebates certainly came off July 22 last, when Judge Grosscup and associates of the court of appeals at Chicago reversed Landis on the assumption that the fine was excessive and not based on good law. What the chief justice of the big octopus had to say of that particular turn in the road was that the merits of the case had not been touched and he would "regard it as a gross miscarriage of justice if through any technicalities the quarry should escape. The president at once had the motion for a rehearing made. This was denied, and the famous case goes up on appeal to the supreme court.

But in the meantime the government pack was in full cry along other paths, the chief of which led toward the dissolution of the Standard Oil company. Sept. 10 at Philadelphia Judge Gray and associates on the circuit bench sustained the right of railroads to own and operate coal mines, holding the commodity clause of the Hepburn bill to be despotic and confiscatory. Federal suits were also started against the Harriman railroad trust and against the powder trust, while numerous fines were imposed on railroads and other corporations under the Elkins law for rebating. On March 23 the supreme court, 8 to 1, thrallinated the Minnesota and North Carolina rate laws, holding that federal courts had the right to review and to stay execution to protect stockholders. The Alabama rate law was held up by the circuit court pending investigation of reasonableness of rates. Pennsylvania's two cent rate law was invalidated by the state supreme court. On Nov. 31 the United States supreme court ruled that the order of the Virginia railroad commission fixing a two cent passenger rate was subject to review and must be tried before the highest state court before seeking federal intervention. In December the circuit court of appeals enjoined the tobacco trust from continuing interstate traffic.

Early in January the supreme court, knocked out the employers' liability law because it was not confined to interstate corporations. On Jan. 25 it ruled that membership in a union might justify dismissal of interstate railroad employees. On Feb. 3 in the famous Danbury batters' boycott case it decided unanimously that the boycott as a method of fighting capital is illegal when declared against goods in interstate traffic. President Gompers and other A. F. of L. officials were enjoined from publishing an "unfair list."

On March 9 the California supreme court vacated the conviction of former Mayor Schmitz, and he was freed on heavy bail covering other charges after having been confined ten months. When in November his pal, Boss Ruff, was brought to trial the desecration of the graft forces showed itself in the act of one discredited saloon man, Haas, who shot Heney in court. Though Heney was seriously injured, he recovered to continue the fight with increased public sympathy. Ruff was convicted Dec. 11 and faced a prison term. Four of Pennsylvania's capital grafters were convicted in February and sentenced Dec. 18 to two years in prison and $500 fine each.

On Nov. 6 at New York Charles W. Morse, the millionaire whose illegal banking practices were believed to have started the financial panic of 1907, was brought to stern justice with conviction and a fifteen year sentence. At the same time sentence for his banking associate, President Curtis of the Bank of North America, was suspended.

Pittsburg was shocked by a series of banking explosions and defalcations, two of which stand out as colossal crimes. On March 23 Henry Reiber, teller, and John Young, auditor of the Farmers' Deposit National bank, were arrested for the misuse of over a million of the bank funds. In June they were sentenced to ten years each. On May 7 William Montgomery, cashier of the Allegheny National bank, was accused of diversions which ultimately ran up to $1,350,000, including some state funds. He was sentenced to fifteen years in prison.

Kentucky's tobacco Night Riders made a raid on the banks in spite of the troops sent out to check them, and on Oct. 20 a band of dispossessed squatters on Reelfoot lake, Tennessee, kidnapped Captain Rankin and Colonel Taylor of Trenton. They hung the former, but the latter escaped by swimming the lake. Troops were called out, and many arrests were made. The most serious race riots of the year occurred at Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14 and 15, when a wild mob killed nine persons, injured eighty and burned houses occupied by negroes. Troops were called out and the leaders brought to justice.

The last of the Idaho cases against miners' officials ended with the acquittal of George A. Pettibone in January. Harry Orchard, the confessed murderer of Governor Steunenberg, from whose testimony implicated the miners, received a death sentence, which later was commuted to a life term. Caleb Powers, four times tried in eight years for the murder of Governor Goebel, was pardoned by Governor Wilson of Kentucky.

Science, Sociology,
Religion and Other Data.

Continuous mechanical flight as a human feat has been publicly demonstrated to the satisfaction of the world by the two American aviators, Wilbur and Orville Wright, giving assurance of new military weapons and promise of practical commercial applications. Having finished their secret trials at Kill Devil hill, North Carolina, last May and having received patent protection here and abroad, the Wrights made public the details of their work. Wilbur then took one machine to Le Mans, France, and Orville another to Fort Myer, Va., for official trials in September. Orville scored first, making a record flight of 1 hour 14 minutes 20 seconds prior to the fatal trial of Sept. 27, when the airplane, carrying the inventor and Lieutenant Selfridge, fell with a broken propeller, killing Selfridge and breaking several of Wright's bones. Later Wilbur sailed the air alone 1 hour and 31 minutes and on Oct. 10 took along one man for 1 hour 9 minutes 45 seconds, winning $100,000 for the invention from a French syndicate. Farman and DeLagrange also made successful aeroplanes flights in France, the former winning the Arch-Deacon prize for the first circuit of the world, while the tetrahedron machine of Bell and Baldwin at Hammondsport, N. Y., was flown short distances.

Count Zeppelin of Germany again led the world in the dirigible balloon field, although his series of flights culminated Aug. 1 in the burning of his huge rigid gas ship at Mayen, where he had paused in a storm for repairs after a continuous journey of 261 miles in 11 hours. With popular aid he built another ship, in which he made more flights in November, winning the Kaiser's prize and selling his invention to the government. The dirigible balloon built by Thoms-

WITHDRAWS FROM RACE.

I want to say to my friends, owing to the illness of my wife and to my business confinement at home, I find it impossible to make the race for Circuit Court Clerk, so I have decided to withdraw. I am sorry that matters have turned out thus but I thank my friends and appreciate what they have already done for me and I hope that in future years, I will be able to make the race. I want us as citizens to elect men to fill our county offices who are moral sober upright citizens.

In reply to our Broadhead correspondent criticism in last week's issue of the SIGNAL relative to R. F. D. I will admit that I have never lived on a Rural route but have had the pleasure of meeting with those who live on them and they say their mail is one day later than when the star route accommodated them. It is a fact those living on the R. F. D. will get their mail every day except holidays and Sundays, but never-the-less it will be one day later on account of the rural carrier having to depart from the town or city as the case may be, before the trains arrive with the mail of that day. At present they get their mail daily (Sunday excepted) from the star carrier whose contract requires him to carry mail to all persons living at certain distances from the road as well as those living on the road, provided they have boxes for same therefore they will find that their boxes under the star system will have to be replaced by boxes approved by the post master bringing on additional expense without additional profit and so far as trudging the mud is concerned I suppose there will be rain and snow (mud factors) in R. F. D. as in star route. Then how are the people going to avoid it? What suits one community does not always suit another. For us the star route service answers a better purpose than would the R. F. D. Come again Broadhead.

You would not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble if you realized that neglect might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and cures all kidney and bladder disorders.

GOOD HOME RECIPE

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:
Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered as the most certain prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matters from the blood which Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose reputation, it is said, was established by it. A druggist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

STATEMENT

My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy.

HUMAN SKULLS HIS TARGET.

Claude Statzer was the original bad boy of the Mt. Washington neighborhood, if half of what the neighbors said about him is true. What they said was plenty twice over to send him to Boonville, where the state of Missouri has a reformatory. Judge H. L. McCune made the order in the Juvenile Court yesterday.

It might not have gone so bad with Claude had he not shot and killed John Parks, a playmate, on Christmas Day. The neighbors, many of them, said that Claude was 19 and that he had been accepted for enlistment in the army, subject to physical examination. But the young man said he was 15, and so it was the reform school.

"Put him away somewhere, Judge," pleaded the mother of Parks. "He has killed my boy, and there is danger for every child in the neighborhood as long as he is there."

And then they began to go into Claude's past. There was the story of many "dime novels," for that's what they cost in these days. There was another tale of how the lad had picked out a box car for his very own, making a home and a fortress out of it. And then there was a narrative of how the boy was seen with a gun.

"Why," said A. P. Fonda, justice of the Peace in Sugar Creek, "this boy dug skeletons from an old burying ground near Mt. Washington. He took the rings off the fingers. The skulls he set up for targets for his rifle. Sometimes he put a cigar or a cigarette in a hole in a skull and tried to shoot away the tobacco. I have had him in Court on complaint of the neighbors."

A storekeeper of the neighborhood related how he was going home one night when the boy halted him at the muzzle of a rifle. As soon as he saw the merchant plainly enough to recognize him he apologized for the case of mistaken identity.

In sentencing Claude Judge H. L. McCune showed his enmity to the "gun-toting" practice. Said the Judge:

"It ought to be a crime to point a gun at any one. I'm going to put a stop to this carrying of guns by boys."—Kansas City Journal.

Contributions to the fund for the relief of the Italian earthquake sufferers, which was started in Louisville Friday at a meeting of the combined Italian societies of the city, are being liberally made. The first contributor to the fund was a man of Jewish faith.

INDIGESTION ENDS.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapiesin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating. Nausea Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Billiousness, Heartburn, Water brach, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Get a large 50 cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

I have received a letter from State Inspector W. H. Thatcher, stating that there will be a "Bradley Special" to leave Louisville on the second of March next and carry thither hundreds of Kentuckians to participate in the inaugural ceremonies of President Taft, which promises to be the most brilliant in our history and to witness the initiation into membership of the United States Senate of our own gifted Bradley. In compliment to the Senator, the train will be known as the "Bradley Special," and the delegation will form a marching club to march in the inaugural parade on March 4th. On the day following the delegation will witness the taking of the oath of office in the Senate chamber by Senator Bradley; and on that afternoon or night the special train will leave Washington for Louisville. I would like for all those who expect to go from this county to let me know at once so that I may be able to report the same to Mr. Thatcher. It is expected that all who make up the marching club will wear dark or Prince Albert coats, white vests, black ties, white "Bradley" hats, and each marcher will also wear an appropriate badge which will be furnished him and will carry a cane cut from the Lincoln farm. The hats will be furnished as you board the train at Louisville. Hence the size of hat desired should be made known in advance.

First class accommodations will be furnished and at, seemingly now, about twenty dollars.

Let me hear from anyone that desires to go so that I may give Mr. Thatcher your name and address. Let us have a good crowd from Rockcastle, and show great honor to our own dear Bradley.

Very truly yours,
G. M. BALLARD.

How To Gain Flesh

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somehow the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health; if you have not got it you can get it by taking

Both the pan-Anglican conference and the Lambeth conference at London went on record for socialism. The Methodist general conference at Baltimore took advanced ground for industrial reforms and prohibition, but refused to change the code of discipline. The Episcopal diocese of New York made a working arrangement with organized labor. On the other hand, the American Catholic society sharply condemned socialism. The first assembling of the Catholic hosts in this country took place in Chicago in November, the occasion being the celebration of the transfer of the United States from a mission country to a country with an independent national church.

Signs of a coming unification of all churches were seen first in the warm interchanges between the Methodist Episcopal conference at Baltimore and the Methodist Protestant conference at Pittsburg, in the union motions between the latter and the Congregational and United Brethren. In the union favored by the Presbyterian general conference at Kansas City with the Reformed church and finally in the first meeting of the great federal council of the Churches of Christ in America at Philadelphia in December. This council also took advanced ground for practical social reforms.

American athletes won a majority of the events in the Olympic games at London in July. John Hayes being the Marathon winner. In November he was beaten by Dorando in Madison Square Garden, New York, and on Dec. 15 at the same place Dorando was beaten by Longboat, the Canadian Indian. The baseball leaders were the Chicago Cubs and the Detroit.

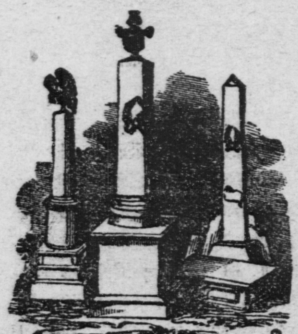

Famous persons who died in 1908 were: Charles Emory Smith, Edmund C. Stedman, Edward A. McDonald, August Wilhelm, Louise de la Ramee (Ouida), Redfield Proctor, senator from Vermont; William Plunkney Whyte, senator from Maryland; William B. Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We are never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 15, were always subject to sick headache until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with pleurisy on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept." The Cairo, Ky., correspondent of the Henderson Gleaner has found out more about December than I had ever dreamt was known but I believed it all to be true because his description of those born in December is an admirable picture of the winter, whose birth distinguished that month and whose career has been one of its longest frosts. But why didn't I hear about that goose before?

"The glorious December, with the dear Christ child in her arms, mistletoe in her hands and the holly on her brow, is the queen month of all the year. This month is very interesting in many ways. The name December comes from the Latin word 'decem,' meaning ten. It was formerly the tenth month of the year, but 713 B. C. it was made the twelfth month. The Anglo Saxons called it 'winter month.' Capricornus is the zodiacal sign for December. Here are two quaint proverbs relative to Christmas day:

"If Christmas day on Monday be, A great winter that year you'll see, And full of winter both loud and shrill."

"If Christmas day fall Upon Friday, know all, That winter shall be easy. Save great winds aloft shall fly, The summer also shall be dry."

"According to the calendar Christmas day falls on Friday in this, 1908, and the summer was certainly dry. If you were born in December your taste would be artistic and generally so luxurious that you will find it extremely hard to live within your income. You will be high-minded, honest, sympathetic and generous. You will not hesitate to start the greatest undertakings and you will crave appreciation above all things else.

"Married in days of December's cheer, Love's star burns brighter from year to year.

"The December birth stone is the turquoise, which signifies prosperity. The holly, meaning domestic happiness, belongs especially to December. You are warned that it will be extremely unlucky to taste of goose or partake of any kind of medicine whatever on the last day of December. Winter begins Tuesday, the 22d."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, the great and supreme Ruler of the universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us, our worthy and esteemed brother, Sir Knight F. J. Meyers, and;

Whereas, the long and intimate relation held within him, it is befitting that we record our appreciation of him, therefore, be it resolved,

First; That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members of this tent.

Second; That with a deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased we express the hope that even so great loss to all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Third; That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of Bullitt Tent, a copy be sent to the bereaved family and a copy be sent to the Mt. Vernon SIGNAL which is published in his home town.

TONEY S. HATCHER, Record Keeper.
